6. Delivering postal packages

7.

8. Article 3 of the draft provides that postal service providers are obliged to deliver the parcels to homes fitted with a parcel box in accordance with the regulations issued in that regard, or a letterbox placed within reach at the side of the public road in accordance with the regulations issued in that regard.

Only Article 3 is intended for notification (the rest of the text is provided as a background).

9. Measures are needed to reduce the environmental impact of delivering postal packages, as well as the impact of unsuccessful attempts to deliver, in particular due to the absence of the addressee. Article 3 of this draft was drawn up in order to take account of these environmental concerns.
